Origin of "Strut."

A stiff piece of wood used as a support is called a strut; so also a person who walks stiffly and pompously about is said to strut. Both words are of Scandinavian origin and the Middle-English word was "strouten" to swell or spread out. There was a German word, strotzen, to be puffed up.

Do you know why it's toasted?

To seal in the delicious Burley flavor.

It's toasted.

BARGAIN DAY, Mt. Vernon, Ohio Wednesday, Aug. 3

Another of the Monthly Sales Days which have made buying in Mount Vernon popular. The savings that can be made on Bargain Day will be found in the advertisements of individual stores taking part in this monthly event.
